

Press Release

February 1, 2020

Med Evac made a successful precautionary landing at approximately 11:55 p.m. Friday, north of Kersey Colo., after a possible laser strike. Med Evac is now working with the Weld County Sheriff's Department in an ongoing investigation of the incident.

No patients were onboard during the emergency landing and no employees were injured in the incident.